

Kooth is a digital, counselling and support platform which is available 24/7, 365 days a year. In Enfield, Kooth is commissioned for young people ages 11-19. On Kooth, young people have access to free counselling, live forums and Kooth magazine.

We know that with lockdowns and Covid-19 closures, it has been an incredibly challenging time for young people, but Kooth.com is still running as normal to support children and young people with their mental health.

Live chat function for a CYP to converse with a qualified accredited counsellor

Messaging function for the CYP to contact the service, these are monitored and managed by counsellors, emotional wellbeing practitioners and media workers

Static and live topic-focused forums; forums encourage the development of a peer-supported community online

An online magazine containing a wealth of topic specific resources, from mental health specific topics to more general subjects such as holidays, family, and relationships. Over 50% of content is contributed by service users, all of which is moderated before being published

Crisis information, and self-help resources

A new activity-hub to support self-expression and developing healthy coping strategies
